

RAÚL.

---

NARRATOR:

Raúl had woken up after what it could undoubtedly have been the best night of his life.

RAUL WAKES UP. YARN AND STRETCH.

NARRATOR:

Of course, the palpitations that beat against his temples reminded him of the bad hangovers he had whenever he spent drinking. So once he managed to get up from the couch he had appeared on, the first thing he did was try to locate himself.

RAUL (TIRED VOICE. HANGOVER)

Where the hell am I? This ... this doesn't look like my room.

Wait ... what time is it?

Doesn't anyone bother so much light? Oh my God!!! A blind for that fucking window !!!!

RAUL MOVES THROUGH THE ROOM STUMBLING, CLASHING WITH EVERYTHING

RAUL (TIRED VOICE) - FOR HIMSELF-

Let's see ... tranquility first. Sit down, Raul ...

A cigarette ... a cigarette ... Damn! Don't tell me I left my tobacco at the bar!

Fuck!!!! (CAUGH SEVERAL TIMES)

How am I going to get this fucking cough off without a couple of puffs?

NARRATOR:

Raúl is not clear where he is. Or what he does there. Where are you, Raúl? Raúl? Raúl?

-The voices overlap with the word Raul

DOCTOR:

Raúl? Raúl? Raúl? Do you know where you are?

Open your eyes ... look at me ... look at the light ... follow it ...

RAUL (TIRED VOICE) - FOR HIMSELF-

Damn, the light !!!!! Am I not going to be able to lower the blinds on this fucking window?

What a headache, please !!!! A drink ... I need a drink !!!!!

FX SERVES A DRINK AND ENJOYS IT

RAUL:

This if !!! No fucking idea where I am, but of course whoever lives here knows about Whiskey. This is ... (tastes it) VE-RY---GOOD.

And the joint is ... elegant. What a style ... here is money ...

Wait!!! Won't I be at that blonde bar's house? ... the one who asked me ...

You fucking hangover! I don't remember almost anything ...

DOCTOR (2P) SLOW LOCATION. AS READING WHILE WRITING IT.

We have him under observation for more than 12 hours now and his situation is not improving.

Temperature ... 38, 7. It has been like this since it entered.

The first test was negative, but the second, performed while maintaining the protocol, was positive for Coronavirus. We are going to have to refer him to the ICU.

-VISITING THE STEWARDS-

DOCTOR (PP) Please, when you can ... take this man to ICU 3. COVID Protocol.

NARRATOR

Raúl does not remember it, but yesterday he was not in a bar with a blonde ... Neither yesterday nor in the last ten days.

Since the State of Alarm was declared due to the pandemic, he decided to continue with his life.

SANCHEZ'S SPEECH ON TV. ALARM STATUS (2P)

PRESIDENT SANCHEZ:

At the meeting scheduled for tomorrow, the extraordinary Council of Ministers will adapt a series of exceptional measures under the declaration of the state of alarm to be decreed tomorrow.

These decisions will be aimed at mobilizing all the resources of the State as a whole to better protect the health of all citizens.

Economic resources, health resources, both public and private, both civil and military, for the protection of all citizens.

And also to respond to the social and economic emergency with maximum agility and forcefulness.

RAUL: Come on !!! What happens? That I'm going to have to stay at home ... locked up like I'm a sucker? And shit !!!!

It won't be that bad. Surely they are exaggerating for someone out there to make gold with us.

(SCREAMING TO THE TV) You are going to stay home!

(IN 2P) I am going for a walk. With the afternoon that makes ... it seems more summer than winter!

FX SLAM DOOR

NARRATOR

Raúl does not remember it, but he left his house without a fixed course. He was just looking for a bar to have a whiskey. But it was all closed. Not a single open bar. Only supermarkets, pharmacies ... food stores. But not a bar.

RAUL: What the fuck! Am I not going to find an open bar? Well, they don't screw me. I buy a bottle and I put it on a bench in the park ... At the sun ...

Look, calmer and cheaper. Every cloud has a silver lining...

NARRATOR

But Raúl was not the only fool in the neighborhood. He had the strange and unfortunate luck of being on the same park bench with two guys as foolish as he.

I knew them by sight ... from the bar of some bar. And with them he shared a bottle, talk, laughter and hugs ...

RAUL: Come on, another round! It is for Conora ... Corona ... for the bug that is going to end all Humanity !! LOL!!!

ENVIRONMENT PARK MIX WITH UCI ROOM HEART RATE STOPS

DOCTOR:

Raúl? Raúl? We are leaving !!!

FX FLAT MARKER BEEP

NARRATOR:

Raúl was found by a local police patrol, sitting on a bench. Asleep.
A neighbor had given notice. He had been there since last night.
He arrived at the hospital quickly. But time had run against him.
The pneumonia caused by the virus was almost ten days ahead of him. Impossible to contain.

DOCTOR:

Raúl Lapiedra Gómez. 52 years. Without previous pathologies. Time of death ... 9 hours and 36 minutes.
Another one to the list of deceased ...

DOCTOR'S VOICE MIXES WITH STATEMENTS FERNANDO SIMÓN

DR. SIMON OFF AND FADE OUT

*We are not sure, but as much as we are at the peak or even descending the transmission, it is important to try to reduce the pressure on these units as much as possible, because they are the units that, so to speak, will modulate the lethality of the transmission. epidemic in our society.
And that is one of the key points that we are interested in controlling.
Minimize that lethality.
We know that right now there are several autonomous communities that are very close to the limit of their capacity in how many intensive care units.
And others, although they have not yet arrived, are gradually approaching.
We need to be clear that we must reinforce ...*
